Annual Convention in Narberth

King's Daughters Meet Here Next Week

Narberth is to act as host to delegates from all over the State, at the annual convention of the King's Daughters.

The meeting will be held next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, at the Baptist Church, and the local chapter is working hard in preparation for the event.

The chapter has asked for general aid in making Narberth's hospitality complete. Mrs. Fred E. Derby, the president, in requesting co-operation, said:

"We may be deluged with delegates and will need more places for their entertainment than have now been secured. Please notify Mrs. F. H. Hewitt if you have room for any one for lodging and breakfast for the three days.

"A home, near Chester Springs, has been offered to the King's Daughters as a gift, to be maintained as a vacation home for working girls for a small charge, and it is planned to take the delegates to it on an inspection trip. There will be needed several automobiles or busses for their transportation, so we hope many of our people will help in this, either by offering to use their cars for this trip or by donating toward the hire of others. The plan is to leave the church immediately after lunch returning about 6 o'clock. Do not wait to be solicited individually for this, but phone Mrs. J. T. Darlington, Narberth 1652-W."

As Narberth is growing so fast the Holiday House, maintained by the King's Daughters, is not in the country any more, and consequently is not as desirable as it once was, for an outing for city children. It is planned to change it, in the not very distant future, to a Home for Old People. This year, however, the house will be used as heretofore for an "outing place" for poor children of the city.

Girl Scout Sunday.

Those who are interested in the Girl Scout movement in Narberth will not want to miss the Scout service, which will be held in the Narberth Baptist Church on Sunday morning, May 17.

It will not only be inspiring to see all the Girl Scouts attend church in uniform, but Mr. Knigh-ton has arranged the program, so that the girls will really be a part of it.

We expect to have Scouts from Ardmore, Bala-Cynwyd and Mill Creek to join the Narberth girls at this service. Come early if you want a seat.

Saturday morning at Dando's store the Narberth Troop of Girl Scouts would like to have the pleasure of demonstrating to you that Girl Scouts can cook. We are going to have a cake sale and you will be the one who "loses out" if you don't get some of our "goodies." But think how much more you will enjoy them when you know you're helping the Scouts.

Saturday afternoon, May 16, the Narberth Girl Scouts are all going to the Court of Awards at Drexel Institute. Watch for next week's Our Town, so we can tell you how many prizes we won. There will be a cup for singing and numerous other awards, which we have been working for.

Dedication Plans.

Let the people of our town and vicinity keep clearly in mind that which is to take place here on the 24th of this month at 3 P. M.—the dedication of the new Lutheran Church at the corner of Narberth and Woodbine avenues. Programs of the exercises will be given or sent out as soon as possible so that all may see the order of the meetings and exercises. There will be services in the morning at 11 o'clock, but the important part of the work of the day will be at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Visitors From Afar.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wolf are entertaining Mr. A. Theodore Wolf, of San Francisco, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Wolf, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Narberth National Bank To Open Its Doors Today

Attractive Architecture and Modern Facilities Mark New Financial Institution

It is not generally known that Haverford avenue is one of the oldest roads in this part of the country, but back in Colonial days it was known as the Haverford and Merion road, and connected the old Quaker Meeting House on Lancaster pike just across the Narberth boundary line, to the Haverford Meeting House.

In keeping with the ideas of our forefathers, the architect chose the Colonial style for building the Narberth National Bank, and has given the effect of a building that has been here for a good long time. The brick work with the marble keystones and the windows patterned after some of the old Philadelphia buildings, make a setting that the whole community may rightly be proud of.

The interior and furnishings have been made along Colonial lines as far as consistent with modern ideas would allow and the old Windsor chairs and the spinnet desks add a quaintness to a very beautiful banking interior.

In the olden days, valuables were kept in iron chests locked with big padlocks, while now the vault equipment is the last word in protection for valuables. The large door with time lock and two combination locks shut the only opening into a concrete mass 18 inches thick, reinforced with steel rods running both crosswise and lengthwise and all lined with heavy steel lining and all protected with an electric protection system that will ring a large gong on the outside of the building if the least thing is disturbed.

The interior of this vault is divided into two sections by a heavy steel grill, back of which are located additional safes for keeping money and securities. In the front part of the vault are safety deposit boxes made in three different sizes which will be rented to those who desire a safe place to keep their valuable papers. It might not be amiss to state here that every family has valuable papers, such as the deeds to property, life insurance and fire insurance policies, a will and many other papers that in a great many cases are kept in the home. Such valuable papers should be placed where a fire or a thief can not reach them.

These safety deposit boxes have two keys which are turned over to the renter of the box and there is no other key that will give anyone access to the box, even if the keys are lost the safe manufacturer must send a man to pry the door off so as to reach that box.

"Courtesy and service will be the watch-words of this new bank," one of the officers stated yesterday, "and everyone is invited to become a depositor, the small account is welcome as well as the large one and the small depositor will be assisted in every way with the hope that some day their account will be as large as the largest. Advice will be extended covering any financial problem and it is suggested that before investing money inquiries be made concerning the standing of the investment and information will be cheerfully furnished if possible to obtain."

"Both saving and check accounts are solicited; a specialty will be made of housekeeping accounts, and the residents of Narberth, who now do all their banking in Philadelphia are earnestly requested to either open the second account out home or to do all their banking business out here where they live and help to make this new Narberth National

To Enlarge Senior High School

Narberth Students at L. M. Necessitate Increase

Preliminary plans for the enlargement of the Senior High School in Ardmore by 1927, were made by the Lower Merion School Board at its May meeting in Ardmore, Wednesday evening.

An addition will be made to the present building. This, it is estimated, will be decidedly needed at the end of another year because of the increase of students from Narberth and township schools.

The high school is not at present overcrowded but it is growing and indications are that space will be scarce in another term. The school board is making plans now for the eventual enlargement in order that it will not have to rush the job when the building of an addition becomes a necessity.

No estimate on the cost of a new wing to school has yet been prepared. The only step authorized by the board was the retaining of Ralph E. White, of Wynnewood, architect for the original building, to draw plans for the proposed addition.

Erection of a building on the high school athletic field to contain a dressing room and lockers for visiting athletic teams was authorized by the board. This addition will be connected with the main school building by two tunnels.

The project, it is estimated, will cost $25,000. The improvement was voted after complaints had been received from high school authorities that the present accommodations for visiting athletic teams were insufficient.

The date for the Senior High School commencement was set for Friday evening, June 12, which is one day earlier than last year. The 1924 commencement was on Friday, June 13. Tuesday, June 16, was set as grammar school day, the day when the grade schools will hold their final exercises.

Sunday, June 7, was made Baccalaureate night by the board and Rev. S. R. Doot, of the Ardmore Methodist Episcopal Church, was chosen as orator. On that night the graduating class will proceed in body to the church to hear Mr. Doot's baccalaureate sermon.

Walzer to Manage Cynwyd.

Fred Walzer, of Narberth, manager of last year's Narberth champion baseball team and manager-elect and resigned of this year's Narberth outfit, will pilot the Bala-Cynwyd ball team in the Main Line League for the rest of the 1925 season. He will succeed Bob Lindsay, of Cynwyd, who resigned as Bala-Cynwyd manager Saturday.

Fred Walzer was suggested as a candidate for the vacancy after a dispute during which Lindsay resigned. At a meeting of the players Monday, it was unanimously voted to offer him the job. George Babb, Cynwyd pitcher who played with Narberth last year, and Roy Chalfont, first baseman, were made a committee of two to broach the idea to the former Narberth leader. Fred interviewed Monday, accepted and on Tuesday afternoon was on hand at the Cynwyd school grounds to put the players through their regular semi-weekly practice. The league's official stamp of approval was put on the change Wednesday when President Harry J. Mosteller, of Ardmore, sanctioned the selection of Walzer.

"The change does not need the approval of the executive committee of the league," President Mosteller explained, "as the rule which forbids teams to pick players outside of their territory does not apply to managers. The matter was settled at a recent meeting of the board when Ashland asked if it could retain a Gladwyne man to manage its nine. It was voted that a team might draw its manager from any town regardless of usual player boundaries."

In Ardmore Store.

George E. Becker, of Forest avenue, formerly of the Bergner Hardware Company, is now with Mills Hardware Store of Ardmore, where he is acting as the Narberth representative.

DIRIGIBLE VISITS NARBERTH

Traffic was halted, yards and porches filled and stores emptied for several minutes yesterday (Friday).

At 12:35 a low humming was heard to the south, and the gleaming, gigantic form of the Los Angeles slipped swiftly and impressively over the borough.

Club Season Ends with Luncheon

Women's Club Hears Reports for Year

Amid the beautiful array of spring blossoms, 90 members of the Community Club enjoyed the luncheon, which marked the closing of the club year, on Tuesday, May 12.

The delicious menu was prepared by the manager of our local restaurant, and ably served by the hospitality committee.

Following the luncheon the annual meeting of the board of directors was held, and four members were elected to serve on the board; Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. Farmer, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Darville. Mrs. Cockrill, former president of directors, read the yearly report of the board, and gave a brief resume of the activities since the board was formed. She also gave a very encouraging report of the proceeds of the recent carnival. Mrs. Fowler spoke in appreciation of Mrs. Anderson's splendid work toward making the carnival a success.

The parliamentary class, which will assemble for the summer months will hold its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Douglass, on Elm Terrace, on Tuesday, May 26, at 10 A. M.

The committee of the fancy work table of the carnival will hold a card party next Tuesday for the building club benefit. Coffee and sandwiches will be served at 1 o'clock, and playing will begin at 2 P. M. Admission 50 cents.

On next Saturday afternoon, May 23, at 2:30 P. M., our energetic juniors will have a card party on the lawn at No. 150 Merion avenue, the home of the Misses Filtipoldi. As the proceeds are to be added to the building fund, the Senior Club is urged to attend. Tickets, 50 cents.

This year the club has charge of a booth at the Garden Day Sale at Bryn Mawr, May 18. Any members who are thinning out plants and have any to contribute may call Mrs. Fowler or Mrs. Douglass.

Mrs. Jacobs, the president, gave a general report of the club doings in the past year; reporting 16 meetings and a membership of 200.

Mrs. Fenno and Mrs. Runyon, the secretaries, gave a summary of their reports and club correspondence. Mrs. Cockrill, the treasurer, reported the treasury to be in a more thriving condition than at the close of any previous year.

The following chairmen made reports of their departments:

Mrs. Ross, civics; Mrs. Dunn, hospitality; Mrs. Batchelor, Legislature; Mrs. Wood, library; Mrs. Douglas, membership; Mrs. Harris, press; Mrs. Cockrill, house; Mrs. Anderson, Junior Club; Mrs. Drew, current event class; Mrs. McConnell, dancing class; Mrs. Robert Wash, gymnasium class.

The three retiring officers, Mrs. Livingston, Mrs. Fenno and Mrs. Cockrill, were given a word of appreciation by Mrs. Shaw.

The incoming officers, Mrs. L. A. Jacobs, president; Mrs. L. C. Douglass and Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, first and second vice presidents; Mrs. C. A. Farmer, recording secretary; Mrs. J. A. Hongler, treasurer, and Miss Margaret Runyon, corresponding secretary, were greeted with a jolly rhyme by Mrs. C. N. Anderson.

A short program of entertainment concluded the festivities. Miss Dorothy Fox played several beautiful selections on the harp. Mrs. Joseph Barclay, in her pleasing contralto voice, sang two sweet melodies. Mrs. Harris gave a reading—a burlesque current events lecture.

Street Ordinances Are Passed

Final Discussion of Big Project at Council

All of the ordinances which are necessary and preliminary to the street paving program were passed through final readings at the meeting of Council last Monday evening, and on the same evening each of them was signed by the Burgess with the result that after the necessary 30 days have lapsed they will be effective. At the same meeting it was informally reported that already there are 17 prospective bidders for the Narberth paving job, which is taken to indicate that the borough should be able to award the contract on favorable terms.

Borough Solicitor Stites reported to Council that the work of verifying the signatures on the petitions was proceeding rapidly as a result of information which the petitioners were mailing to him on printed postcards that had been provided for them by the Narberth Street Improvement Association. He said that already 100 postcards had been checked up at Norristown and had been found to be all right in every case.

A belated petition for paving Meeting House lane was presented to Council by R. F. Wood, of the Street Association. Mr. Wood reported that this street is the only one in the original program from which it has been impossible, up to date, to procure the necessary number of signatures. The petition which he turned in contained nine signatures out of a probable total of 13, but among the remaining four are Messrs. Albrecht and Mowrer, whose two properties on the east side of Meeting House lane are sufficiently large to veto the improvement of that street if neither of these men can be persuaded to assent to the program of improvement.

As a result of this delay, Meeting House lane is not included in the list of streets for which contractor's bids are being procured. Meeting House lane, however, is included in the enabling ordinances and it is hoped that, if the necessary signatures can be obtained, it may yet be included.

The bond issue ordinance provides for $75,000 of borough bonds bearing four per cent. interest and maturing serially over a period of 25 years. The ordinance provides that the registry book for these bonds and other financial details concerning them shall be handled by the Narberth National Bank. This ordinance also provides a grad-

OUR OWN FLOWER SHOW SATURDAY, MAY 30

To Be Held a Week Earlier Than Usual.

Saturday afternoon and evening, May 30, in Elm Hall, Narberth gardeners will show the flowers from their gardens and fill the tables with the best that they have, each hoping that they may be awarded the blue ribbon in the class or at least a red one for second prize or a white one for the third prize.

These home town flower shows are in no sense for professionals or experts, but just the best opportunity for the veriest amateur to learn just what the flowers are, where they come from, what they cost and how to grow them.

The only requirement to make a successful show is that everyone who has flowers to cut will bring them to the show between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock on Saturday morning.

Weather conditions have been a bit peculiar this season, but from present indications we should have peonies, roses and practically all of the perennials in bloom on or about May 30.

Flower shows cost money, but very little, the main expense is the rent of the hall and to cover this an admission charge is necessary. Big folks a quarter and little one a dime.

No charge is made for entries and the committee is ready and willing to help new exhibitors place their exhibits to the best advantage.

Only two weeks from today. Look your garden over, spray the roses and save the date, Memorial Day.

ARDMORE THEATRE

Ardmore, Pa.

May 12, 1925.

Mr. Philip A. Livingston, Editor,
Narberth, Pa.
Dear Mr. Livingston:
May we express our appreciation,
through your valued medium, to everyone
for his or her friendship and patronage of the past?

We're celebrating our third anniversary
May 18 to 23 inclusive and extend an invitation to everybody to join in this observance.

To demonstrate our thanks we have arranged the most complete and comprehensive show which we have ever offered.
Everything from classical music to a Terpsichorean treat will be presented, in conjunction with Douglas Fairbanks in
"The Thief of Bagdad" and Rin-Tin-Tin
in "The Lighthouse by the Sea"; featurettes, comedies, etc.

You will hear for the first time our newly augmented organ on which Horace Hustler will play.

And last, but not least—when you come to the Ardmore Theatre during the week of May 18 be sure to ask for one of the souvenir books containing pictures of your favorite screen stars.

May we suggest that you come early,
because the supply of these beautiful books, profusely illustrated, is limited.

We reiterate our expression of thanks for your past patronage. During the coming year we intend to surpass every accomplishment already attained.

May we hope to be favored with your presence?

Cordially yours,
WM. J. LAPORTES,
Managing Director.

COUNCIL MEETING

uated tax for meeting the sinking fund requirements of this bond issue as follows: From 1926 to 1934, $6444 a year; from 1935 to 1939,
$5140 a year; from 1940 to 1944,
$4480 a year; from 1945 to 1949,
$3820 a year; from 1950 to 1954,
$3160 a year.

Other ordinances passed at the same meeting authorized the borough officers to require the laying of standard sidewalks, curbs and gutters when and where necessary;
authorized the borough officers to lay sewers and assess a sewer tax therefor on certain streets in the northwestern section of the borough, and finally, there was passed an ordinance giving the borough officers authority to procure bids and let the contracts for the paving work.
To Widen Haverford Avenue.

In the course of preparing the schedules for the street-paving program, it was decided to widen Haverford avenue from Essex to Conway by requesting the Pennsylvania Railroad to move back its bank, which is encroaching on the street bed.

Instead of requiring the laying of a sidewalk and curb on the south side of the street, however, it was decided to ask the railroad to construct a retaining wall to hold the bank. It was unofficially reported that the railroad is willing to proceed with the improvement.

The moving-back process will widen the street from four to 12 feet. The pavement on the north side, adjacent to the bank will be eight feet wide. This will permit the planting of several elm trees,
which improvement in under contemplation.

Another needed improvement in Narberth's streets is promised in the decision to widen Wynnewood avenue from Windsor to the railroad bridge, a distance of 15 feet. This will be done as soon as the borough is ready to resurface this stretch of road, which is at present in wretched condition. Not only will the wider street make traffic safer, but it will permit of parking during ball games,
and less congestion when any event
is under way on the playground.

To Buy Gas Tank.

In order to save on the gasoline consumed by the borough truck and fire apparatus, it was decided to purchase a tank at a cost of $67 and borrow a pump from the Atlantic Refining Company. The saving of three cents a gallon will pay for the improvement in the course of a little more than a year.

The report of Building Inspector George B. Supple showed unusual activity in new building during the past month. The largest operation under way is a row of 12 houses
with garages on the former Artman property on Windsor avenue east of Wynnewood. Many permits for private garages were issued, and several for reroofing.

The consideration of the amended building code, which is on the second reading calendar, was held over until the next meeting to permit the meeting to end before midnight. Pictures were presented by Mr. T. Noel Butler to show that in many cases wooden shingles were safer than composition ones.

BANK TO OPEN

Bank a complete success and a credit to the community.

"This is a community bank; the stock necessary to make it possible is nearly all held in Narberth; the architect who designed the building,
Mr. Victor Abel, the contractors who constructed the building,
Messrs. William D. and H. T.
Smedley, are Narberth people; and the majority of the directors are residents of Narberth.

"Narberth is known far and near for its fine community spirit, and the opportunity is right here to show whether that faith is misplaced or not and whether our Narberth
people will show again this fine spirit and give the Narberth National Bank the support that it should have to make it a successful Narberth institution."

The bank will be open for the inspection of the public on Saturday, May 16, from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 10 o'clock in the evening and it will be possible to arrange for new accounts at that time.
The regular opening will be Monday morning, May 18, when at 8 o'clock it will open for the transaction of all banking business allowed by the laws of the United States under whose charter it will operate and of course, also subject to the requirements of the Federal Reserve System, as it is a member bank under that great banking system.

Take a walk over on Saturday afternoon or evening and bring your friends and neighbors and see what a nice complete little bank is at your service.

TWILIGHT BASEBALL LEAGUE IS FORMED

Narberth Swamped Ashland in Last Saturday's Game.

Due to objection on the part of Paoli and Berwyn, the far western members of the Main Line Baseball League against twilight baseball, the league will foster a sub-league,
which will be known as the Main Line Twilight Baseball League.

The new circuit will consist of the other four members of the Main Line circuit, Bala-Cynwyd, Nar-berth, Ardmore and Ashland and two new members. The new entries will be the Autocar team of Ardmore and possibly the Preston A. C.
The first has already signed up;
negotiations are now being concluded for the entrance of the second.

The new league will be independent of the Main Line circuit, but will possibly be governed by the same officials. Changes will be made only to give the two new clubs representation on the executive board, which is the final court for players' disputes.

Instead of dividing the summer season into two halves, as under the present arrangement, the Twilight League will run all its games through on one season. There will be games every Wednesday evening.
They will get going within a week.

Narberth 28, Ashland 14.

Narberth opened the Main Line
League season at Ashland last Saturday with a slugging match.
The final score sounded like a back-lots contest or a cricket match, 28 to 14 favor the Boroughites.

They almost ruined the home
club in the second inning by tagging the home plate 18 times. In the fray Ashland used three pitchers, nine of the Narberth boys walked to first on free passes, and 11 hits were made before three men were put out. H. Humphries, Yowell, G.
Fleck and J. Keyes batted three times and the other five boys batted twice. Narberth batted first and Huntsworth had only three men facing him. Ashland started out fine, getting three runs the first inning and the Ashland rooters went wild, but after Narberth's second inning things changed.

Arnoun entered the pitcher's box
in the fourth frame and held Nar-berth for three innings without a run, but in the eighth five runs were added. Ashland fought hard all through the game and tried to catch up, but fell short by 14 runs. J.

McFarland was the big man for Ashland, getting four hits out of five times at bat for three runs. He also had four assists. Sullivan, who plays the hot corner for Ashland, had a good day in the field with five assists. H. Humphries and Eppa
Yowell batted rooo.

Health Council Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Health Council of Lower Merion township and borough of Nar-berth will be held at the Ardmore
Health Centre, No. 53 West Lancaster avenue, Ardmore, on Tuesday, May 19, at 4 P. M. This is an open meeting and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

The program will be as follows:
Election of officers; report of the work of the year; report of the State Tuberculosis Clinic, which is conducted at the Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Mr. Robert H. Lewis, who is in charge of the field work of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society, will be the speaker of the afternoon, and will outline the program of the State and tell in what ways the local committees
can assist with their work.

The work of the Health Council is financed entirely by the sale of Christmas seals. This sale was very successful last year on account of the interest displayed by the people and the committee hopes that many of its generous contributors will be able to be present at the meeting.

Little Garden Day Sale.

Many valuable vegetable and flower plants have already been promised by owners of places for the Little Garden Day Sale to be held next Monday, May 18, at the Bryn Mawr Memorial Building,
from 2 to 7 P. M. Generous donations have also been received from the local merchants.

In case of rain, postponed until the following day. Prizes have been offered for the best arrangement of flowers for a hall or dining room.

Other Carnival Awards.

The beautiful table lamp given by Van Sciver, of Camden, N. J., was won by Mrs. Emma Hess, of Iona avenue. The luncheon set was won by Mrs. W. Barriskill, of West Philadelphia.

NOT BEING ALARMISTS

We have not trumpeted the cry of "Watch for a Coal Strike!"

But we do advocate Preparedness!

Men from our own Community who travel through the coal districts bring back rumors of trouble brewing; officials of the big coal industries
look serious when questioned.

Because it so often happens that the men of the family have not the time in the morning, yet would like a few minutes' chat over their coal problems, Mr. Dunne has arranged to be in the office personally every night next week.

Come in and arrange a time convenient to your

Our sales last week on Butter were larger than ever before, and never a complaint.

However, if you should at any time find your Butter just the slightest bit off, do us a favor and return know you can depend on the kind we sell.

It's hardly necessary to say anything about the kind of Eggs we sell. If you have lived in Narberth any of everything else as we do of Eggs we would have to have a storeroom twice its present size.

FIVE COUNTIES SEND DELEGATES TO MEETING

League Assembly of Women Voters Held in Chester County Home. Delegates from five counties, Philadelphia, Montgomery, Chester, Delaware and Bucks, attended the League Assembly of the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters conducted on the farm of State Representative Martha G. Thomas, at Whitford, Chester county, on Thursday, May 14.

Subjects discussed included: The "Get-Out-the-Vote" campaign; plans for a State-wide survey of the cost of county and local taxation in preparation for the next session of the State Legislature; policies of the National League of Women Voters; the building programme of the State Department of Welfare; plans for the league's State convention, to be held in Erie on November 17 and 18, and the value of league work to party government.

The delegates were entertained at luncheon by State Representative Thomas, first vice chairman of the league. The next League Assembly will be held in Beaver, Beaver county, for the county organizations of Western Pennsylvania, on June 11, under the auspices of Mrs. E. S. H. McCauley, chairman of the Beaver County League.

Delegates to the League Assembly at Miss Thomas' farm were members of all county and local boards of the league in the five eastern counties. Speakers included Dr. Ellen C. Potter, Secretary of Welfare; Mrs. E. Page Allinson, vice chairman of the Chester County Republican Committee; Miss Henrietta Baldy Lyon, of Williamsport, a member of the league's State board; Mrs. Edwin A. Yarnall, chairman of the Delaware County League; Mrs. Walter M. Newkirk, of Radnor, of the State Finance Committee; Mrs. Paul E. Lachenmeyer, Lansdowne; Mrs. George S. Seltzer, chairman of the Germantown League; Mrs. George H. Wobensmith, chairman of the Philadelphia League; Mrs. Charles T. Downing, Chester county; Mrs. Ina J. N. Durfee, Montgomery county; Miss Helen Porter, Doylestown; Mrs. John G. Wilson, Montgomery county; Miss Elizabeth Pharo, of Haverford, and Mrs. Harry Whitney, chairman of the Chester County League.

WORDS THAT BEWILDER

Some Reasons Why Foreigners Find English Peculiarly Difficult.

Why is it that few Chinese can ever learn to pronounce English words containing the letter "R"? says Pearson's Weekly. And why is it, too, that the people of nearly all foreign countries have difficulty with our "th," while we have trouble with the nasal and guttural sounds present in many other languages?

It is because certain parts of the mouth and throat—the larynx and the palate, to be exact—differ slightly in shape in people of different nations.

These differences have arisen in the passing of time almost entirely from two causes—use and habitation.

First, the "speaking apparatus" has grown accustomed to the pronunciation of certain sounds, and it finds difficulty in forming sounds of an unusual nature.

Secondly, the habitation of the ancestors of the present races is the chief cause of the differences in shape. The races that are descended from tribes which dwelt in the cold parts of the world always speak with as little opening of the mouth as possible. But the people of warmer climes, such as Spain and Italy, always give their words a fuller, more open-mouthed pronunciation.

Although the matter has never been definitely settled, it is quite likely that there are very minor differences in the shape of the "speaking apparatus" among the people of our own race and country. And it is as a result of these differences that we have the various dialects and brogues met with in different parts of the kingdom.

"And If I Had But Two Loaves of Bread I Would Sell One and Buy Hyacinths to Feed My Soul."

DARWIN TULIPS

The old philosopher had the right idea, but he displayed poor judgment in his choice of spring-flowering bulbs, or—perhaps they had not perfected the May-flowering tulips at that time.

Modern folks who have a few square feet of open sunshiny space that they call a garden, and wishing to indulge in "soul food," will do well to invest in May-flowering tulips.

Why the Holland growers insist on calling them by different names, according to their color groups, is something of a mystery. The Darwin Tulips, Cottage Tulips and Breeder Tulips all bloom at the same time and are all tall, ranging in height from 18 to 30 inches, and are without doubt the most satisfactory flower in the garden at this season either for effect in beds or borders or for cutting. They last a week or more in the garden and will last a week when cut.

The late tulips, while hardy, are not perennial under ordinary garden conditions, as the bulbs split up after flowering and the flowers get quite small after the second year. Two years of bloom should be quite enough, as the bulbs cost only 50 cents to $1 a dozen and even less in larger quantities.

Mid-October is the best time to plant them and while they are blooming is the best time to order them. Write down the names of the colors that appeal to you and order them in June or July—or you can take a chance and wait until September and get what is left at a higher price.

If you buy but one tulip—buy Clara Butt—the most popular one and deservedly so, a real salmon pink, a color that is always right and a tulip that is always right, and the lowest priced.

"Any color—so it's red." All right. Lots of 'em. Farncombe Sanders—rosy scarlet; Baronne de la Tonnaye—bright rose; Gesneriana Spathulata—crimson scarlet; Pride of Haarlem—rosy carmine; Ariadne—fiery red; Prince of Orange—orange scarlet.

Dark reds, King Harold—ox-blood red; La Tulip Noire—black maroon.

Yellows, Inglescombe Yellow—clear yellow; Moonlight, pale yellow; Mrs. Moon, golden yellow; Gesneriana Lutea—golden yellow.

Lavenders, Blue Aimable—clear lavender; Valentine—heliotrope violet; Reverend Ewbank—lavender violet; Franz Hals—violet blue; Ronald Gunn—bluish violet.

Purples, Godet Parfait—plum violet; Velvet King—deep purple; Philippe de Communes—dark plum purple; Mrs. Potter Palmer—amaranth purple.

Pinks, Princess Elizabeth—rosy pink; Gretchen—blush pink; Inglescombe Pink—salmon pink; Clara Butt—light salmon pink.

Among the Darwin, Cottage and Breeder tulips will be found many more colors and color combinations such as: Louis XIV—purple with brown edge; Dom Pedro—brown and maroon; Picotee—white edged pink; The Fawn—fawn color suffused rose, and White Queen—white tinted pink.

While the three color ranges vary somewhat in height, the flowers are of the same cup shape, with the exception of the Cottage type, which has petals that flare outward rather than curve in. It is well to try some of each and find the combination that suits us best.

If we have some late tulips we will surely want some more this fall. If we haven't started yet—let us by all means get them ordered at once and make sure that we have them next spring.

Tulips have not been embargoed, neither have the crocuses nor the hyacinths, but all the other spring bulbs will have to be ordered from abroad for the last time this year.

ON MAIN LINE MUSIC FESTIVAL PROGRAM

Ted Shawn, world-renowned dancer, who will appear with Ruth St. Denis at Bryn Mawr, June 6th.

Ted Shawn will be featured on the program to be presented by the Main Line Music Festival on the Bryn Mawr Polo Field, Saturday evening, June 6, in aid of the Children's House of the Bryn Mawr Hospital. He will dance a solo number as well as a drama ballet with Ruth St. Denis.

Night after night Ted Shawn has haunted Spanish concert halls and cafes from Barcelona, in the north, of Spain, to Seville, in the south, and daily studied from the Flamenco dancers their steps. He bought gorgeous shawls, mantillos and bull-fighters' suits, and he and Miss St. Denis will use some of them at Bryn Mawr in a most fascinating and picturesque type of Spanish dancing.

As a further evidence of Ted Shawn's determination to present only the original native dances, he not long ago traveled to Algeria and hiring an airplane went right into the land of the Mosque tribes, where he studied from the natives their fanatic visualizations. He was once permitted to watch a strange dance ceremony in which a high priest of the Mosque danced until the foam formed about his lips; he then drove two rapier-like swords through both his cheeks, one through his throat, and there followed a wild whirling dance. When a marabout removed the swords, no blood flowed. After he had eaten broken glass, a live scorpion, and licked a white-hot scythe until it was cold, he lurched across the floor in a huddled heap in a trance. Thus ended his sacrifice.

It is the actual foundation of such true traditional themes that place these dancers on an incomparable plane. They are foremost contributors to the art of the dance in America. The selection of these artists was made by the committee in charge, headed by Mrs. Chas. Simmickson and the musical director, Clarence C. Nice.

"I want a shave," said the determined-looking man as he climbed into a chair in the Coliseum Barber Shop. "I don't want a hair-cut nor a shampoo. Neither do I want any bay rum, witch hazel, hair tonic, hot towels, or face massage. I don't want the manicure lady to hold my hand, nor the bootblack to fondle my feet. I just want a plain shave, with no trimmings. Do you understand that?"

"Yes, sir," said the barber. "Will you have some lather on your face, sir?"

BETTER METHODS;
BETTER SERVICE

WITH the best of modern equipment, more telephone lines in cable can be "pulled in" to the underground conduit plant today in 2½ hours than could be done between sunrise and sunset fifteen years ago.

In the beginning, it was "all hands at the capstan." Then a pair of horses harnessed to the job. Next, a motor truck with winch and power take-off. Last, a tractor placed above the manhole.

Telephone construction, maintenance and operation are being advanced and speeded in a thousand and one such ways.

Invention and development from within are supplemented by constant search in outside fields.

An improved device weighing two pounds will often contribute more than one weighing two tons. A better soldering-iron, in the hands of an organization which solders fifteen million metal connections a year, counts big.

In every department of telephone work more ground is covered today than yesterday. Little of this work is seen by the public, except along the highways and on an occasional visit to a central office.

But the increasing volume of service, and the still faster increasing complexity it presents, is more than matched by the putting to work of countless creations of American telephone and mechanical genius.

DO YOU GO TO CHURCH?

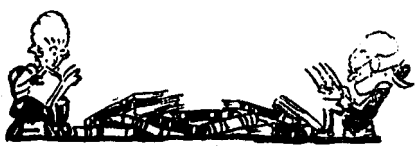

To the Editor of Our Town:

Rather a pertinent question, but when considered in the light of the fact that only about 50 per cent. of our population are church members and that of these only about 70 per cent. go to church more than once per Sunday, it is quite evident that there are many who do not. Do you? If not, why? Only yourself can answer. Anyone can readily give an excuse. Some are too busy; some are so weary from the week's toil that they need rest; some don't like the preacher, or the way the service is conducted, etc., etc. These reasons are plausible enough now, but think how silly they will sound in the time of final analysis.

We hear on every hand about the general state of unrest and uncertainty among the people. Why is it? Is it not because they are seeking after only temporary pleasure and advantage and are not anchored in the things that are permanent and abiding?

Be not deceived. God is not mocked and the opportunities now considered so lightly by many will not always last. Some day the books will be balanced and the accounting made and we will be judged according to our works. Here in this delightful community with its splendid churches and ministers, one should not need to be urged to attend his appointed place of worship. It will bring to you a sense of confidence and resplendence and self-satisfaction that can be had in no other way. Try it.

In October, 1924, the Merion Title and Trust Company, who had become the owners of the building in which the Library was housed, offered to the Library the continued use of the lobby, expressing the hope that the Library might be kept open every day thereafter. And on Monday, the 13th of October, began the first of the daily openings, changing the opening hour from 2 o'clock to 3, and the closing hour from 5.30 to 5. Circulation increased rapidly from this point on.

The next step taken was when after several months of discussion and planning, a Library Association was formed to take over the control of the Narberth Community Library, which had hitherto been one of the activities of one committee of the Women's Club. This action was taken simply because the growth of the work demanded that the entire community be given a fuller opportunity to share in its management.

This week there has come the official notice that the Narberth School Board has offered an appropriation of $500, to be spent for books of standard merit and for current works of reference. This action on the part of the School Board was taken unanimously and with fine spirit.

The very latest move was effected Monday, May 11, when the Library was moved from the lobby to the gymnasium wing of the same building, where it is to be housed at least during the summer. This arrangement will give greater ease to workers and readers alike and aid greatly in displaying the facilities of the Library.

In concluding this report, I wish to bring out and emphasize an accomplishment in which the entire membership of the club can take justifiable pride, and which gives to the Narberth Women's Community Club an almost individual distinction. In my own observation, I do not know of anything that duplicates it. Many Women's Clubs have established libraries, which have functioned with varying degrees of success, but there are very few that have magnanimously presented to their own community a fully-equipped and successful Library, for the community to carry on. The members of the Community Club have shown in this instance not only constructive civic spirit in creating and developing a Library, but also they have revealed a characteristic, which is exceedingly rare, and that is a broad-minded inclination to place the interests of the entire community ahead of the personal satisfaction of the club itself. I cannot say too strongly that in this act of public spirit renunciation this club has permanently distinguished itself.

Librarian.

Today Marks a Milestone

in Narberth's Commercial Activity

¶ In the opening of the first Community and National Bank which Narberth can claim as its own, an important place in financial and commercial progress has been reached.

¶ Good banking service includes a great deal more than you realize if you have no bank account.

¶ Credit and confidence grow with business relations, and there is no better time to begin an acquaintance with your bank than on its opening day.

¶ Every time you deposit in a Community Bank you benefit yourself, the Bank and your Community. Your money is therefore doing triple duty.

¶ Every time you deposit in a National Bank you have the assurance that the accountability of the government is added to the accountability of the Bank. Your money is therefore doubly safe.

¶ Besides a place in which to deposit your money, a truly modern Bank is one that can help you with your financial problems, guide your investment policies, plan your vacations, supply you with legal tender for your travels, guard your valuables in its safe deposit vaults, and confirm your credit.

¶ Such a Bank—modern in every respect, architecturally good to look upon, with a company of Directors who bring to the direction of its affairs a wide and diversified experience—is Narberth's new achievement.
